The Big Church Day Out 2010

Fixture details are being advertised for the 2010 event. They are planning to have 2 days at Wiston House, last years venue, which will be on Sunday 30th May and Bank Holiday Monday 31st May 2010. The exact same programme with all the same performers, worship leaders and fun, will run on each of the days. Gates open at 11 am with the event starting at 2 pm until 10 pm on both days The line-up at the moment includes HILLSONG UNITED, SWITCHFOOT, TOBY MAC (DC Talk), ISRAEL HOUGHTON, TIM HUGHES (Worship Central), BRENTON BROWN, GRAHAM KENDRICK, LOU FELLINGHAM, TOM & OLLY, LZ7, THE KINGS CHAMBER ORCHESTRA, STUART PENDRED and TRENT.

Life plan to have a church service, as usual, on the Sunday and propose, as a church, to go to the event together on the Bank Holiday Monday. However, it is accepted that there maybe those who may want to go to Wiston House on the Sunday instead or alternatively there may be some who may want to attend the church service in the morning and then go onto the event or they may want to attend the event on both of the days.

Tickets are on sale and as usual there are "early bird" and group booking offers if booked early For the 31st May event, Group ticket costs are i) Up to 10 people £18 per day ii) 11- 20 people £17 per person per day iii) 21 - 40 people £16 per person per day plus booking fee (check out the website to see if it'll work out cheaper for you to book either a "family ticket" or an adult and child if you have children. This year they also have tickets for "Camping" Visit their website <http://www.bigchurchdayout.co.uk/> to get the full details).

With the event being on two separate days and with people's preference being spread over the two days this means that it makes getting group tickets a little more complicated and it may not even be viable to get them. Therefore, at this stage, it will be good to gauge interest for those wanting to buying tickets, for which day and numbers for each day. Please send your response to Anna Pisani, who will collate the feedback (either speak to or email on pisanianna@hotmail.co.uk)

Thanks

Encountering God Growing in faith Making a difference

Praise God for a victory in the House of Lords

Three amendments tabled by Baroness O'Cathain were passed by the House of Lords tonight. The first amendment was voted through 216 votes to 178, the second was conceded by the Government and the third was voted through 177 votes to 172.

The Government also tried to pass an amendment which would have further restricted the freedom of Churches. Thankfully this amendment was defeated by 195 votes to 174 and the law has not been narrowed any further.

We at CCFON are delighted with the result and are thankful to all of you for your prayers and action in writing to peers and signing the petition. We are also thankful for the many Peers who supported Baroness O'Cathain's amendments and spoke in favour of religious freedom throughout the debate.

Although the Government has consistently maintained that the effect of their provisions would not alter the current situation, it is the opinion of CCFON and many other Christian organisations that the proposed Governmental provisions contained within the Equality Bill would have further reduced the freedom of Churches. We are therefore grateful that the status quo has been maintained and the law has not been narrowed any further.

Andrea Minichiello Williams, director of CCFON said:

"This is a great day for religious liberty in the UK. We are thankful that the law has not been changed and the freedom of Churches to control their own affairs has not been restricted any further. The results show what can happen when Christians pray and take action. Let us be encouraged that even in an increasingly secular society, the voice of the Church can still be heard."

Most of all we are thankful to God for answering our prayers. We serve a mighty God!

Please turn out your toiletries for the Women's Refuge

Last year we collected toiletries e.g. shower gel, soaps, shampoos etc for the refuge that takes in women who are running away from abusive home situations. Ladies, can you take a look at what you have at home or buy something and lets collect for them again to show God's love to them. and I'll get them picked up around Valentines Day to be given out. They'll be a box at Welcome for the next few weeks. Lets fill it up! Thanks, Julie

Open Doors Prayer Group will be meeting on Thursday 4th February at 2 pm at 48 Homesteam House to pray for Christians who are suffering severe persecution at this time.

Guidelines on Child Protection

We have revised the church's Guidelines on Child Protection which set out the way in which we should support the children and young people we have contact with as a church. The Guidelines are based on the latest advice from the Baptist Union and also explain what we should do if we discover or suspect abuse. Everyone who is beginning to work with Life's children or young people will be given a copy of the Guidelines, but let Anna Pisani or Alan Cruickshank know if you want a copy.

Bennetts Field Fun Day 2010 - Sunday May 2nd

Following on from last year, we are again working with Brighton Road and other local churches to put on another Fun Day on Sunday 2nd May. The event will start with a service at 11:00, with the Bouncy Castles etc. being available from 12:00 onwards. The content will be similar to last year, although the distribution of the food will be managed more carefully to ensure it doesn't run out so quickly! There will also be some additional inflatables.

As ever I will need assistance from you all to help make this a success, in areas such as publicity (mail-drops), food, and various tasks on the day.

You'll hear more on this in future weeks - for now please note the date in your diaries and pray that many hearts will be touched on the day. We are also looking at ways of following this up with further cross-church events to provide continued engagement with the local community. Eric

Melissa

We are so thankful to God that following our day of prayer for Melissa her condition has improved greatly and the fitting has abated. Please do keep remembering Melissa, Jasmine and the whole family in prayer.

An update on Pastor Igor from Malcoci who fell off the church roof.

- He had reconstructive surgery on his left knee on Tues. 5 Jan. (that was the third date we'd heard for that op!) – this seems to have gone well as he may now be in a position to try and put a little weight on the leg.
- He can now sit up in bed, which is useful to start re-building his back muscles – bear in mind he's now been in hospital for over 2 months.
- He still needs an operation on his right knee, but this has suffered much less damage than the other one – he's starting with a little physio on this and they might actually let him go home for a bit in a couple of weeks before operating.
- The whole thing's obviously taken its toll on Veronica and the family – the implication is that whilst Igor at least outwardly has maintained his cheery disposition she's found it emotionally draining, and of course there are still months of rehabilitation to go.
- It also appears he's had sufficient financial support from a variety of sources, to enable him to receive the necessary treatment, so that does not seem to be an issue for concern.

We believe that Igor has now been allowed home which is great.
